Jakub Aniszewski

Software Engineer

Software engineer focused on Python, TypeScript, and cloud-backed applications. I build production systems with clear ownership, practical architecture, and a strong bias toward reliability and maintainability.

Python | TypeScript | Google Cloud | Product engineering

Core Strengths

- Backend delivery: APIs, asynchronous workflows, internal platforms, and cloud-native services.
- Product engineering: pragmatic full-stack execution with maintainable TypeScript frontends.
- Team fit: strong ownership, crisp communication, and empathy for future maintainers.

Work Experience

Full Stack Developer
Jul 2026 - Present
STX Next

Develop full-stack features across Python backend services and Angular frontends written in TypeScript, delivering end-to-end functionality for the digital marketing industry on Google Cloud.

Senior Python Developer
Jun 2025 - Jul 2026
STX Next

Built microservices for the digital marketing industry using Python, SQLAlchemy, and Google Cloud. Worked with Datastore, Pub/Sub, and Cloud SQL to support reliable production systems, and contributed to Angular and TypeScript frontend features.

Full-Stack Software Engineer
Jan 2024 - Apr 2025
NotBug

Built product applications with Django and Angular, worked across SQL and NoSQL stores, and shipped asynchronous workflows with Celery, Docker, and Azure DevOps.
